The first step is deciding what type of certified course you would like to complete; many professional make-up artists have trained with Donna Biggs and her team of highly skilled staff. We specialize in make-up artistry and we give you expert guidance and techniques on how to create different looks and illusions for all areas of beauty and fashion. View our Facebook page: Studio Make-Up, for all the current trends, looks and techniques which we demonstrate in our relevant courses.

We encourage students to view our school environment and atmosphere; all classes are conducted in English in a relaxed studio environment. We ensure that students are given individual guidance and encouragement to develop their talents to the highest industry standards, all students need to complete assignments / tests and practical examination before they receive their certification in make-up artistry.

All students receive a 30% discount on all make-up products purchased during their course.

PLEASE NOTE: A friend / family member must be brought to class for all exam days, this is compulsory.

Dates / Courses / Prices are subject to change without prior notice. Minimum number required per course.
